Date: June 3 – 14 (Co-hort #3) OR June 17 – 28 (Co-hort #4)
Cost: $45 Cost: $45

In the Spirit of Reconciliation, learn about Canadian History Through the Lens of Indigenous Women. We invite you to join the online learning co-hort.

This is an online only course. There is no face to face or classroom attendance required.

During the 2-week Pilot, prepare your schedule for an estimated 8 hours for online reading and interaction.

This course will be taught in an asynchronous manner. This means you do not have to attend a lecture at a specific time. There will be meetings for online chats and dialogue during the course that Chastity will set up.

We are so happy you are joining us! All the best in your endeavors.

Each Co-hort has only 26 seats for enrollment, so register today! Please contact Norah at admin@frpbc.ca or Madelaine at mhittos@gmail.com.

In order to complete the eight hours towards professional development you are required to:

- Complete activities and discussion postings
- Final evaluation and feedback form

For more information about Chastity Davis, please go to her website http://www.chastitydavis.com/.

Click here for the short introductory video.

BC Association of Family Resource Programs